Meet the Owners

Chris Freeman: has over 30 years experience in the pool industry. After graduation from Virginia Tech, Chris started a pool service company in which he sold 5 years later. He then began his career in management for W.W. Adcock, a local pool distributor. In 2001, Chris bought Crystal Clear Pools and Spas, where his company specializes in pool equipment repairs, and liner changes. Chris schedules, manages, and services all of Blue Water Pool projects.

Taylor Grissom: has over 27 years in construction management, and 9 years in the pool industry. He has been involved on many road construction projects throughout Hampton Roads. He serves on The Corporate Board of Directors of Monarch Bank, and is involved in various community projects. Taylor is responsible for the business operations and sales for the company.

"Our goal is to provide excellence in all that we do for our customers. Our pools are constructed using the best equipment in the industry. Our personal service gives the homeowner comfort during the construction process, as well as, after the project is complete."
